Do you require a mask? During the last few weeks of isolation the MOMMS (Mississauga Oakville Masks Makers), coordinated by Katie Powell and Anna Loughlin, have been sewing fabric masks for the vulnerable of our community. Over 500 masks have been donated to hospices and other care facilities as well as another 100 to the vulnerable of our own congregation and those related to the Oakville bowlers who are part of the sewing team. As more masks are now becoming available to the public, we feel we are now in a position to offer our fabric masks to our own church family. If your family could use these masks (2 per family) please contact Bev Mathew (905-826-5005 or bev.mathew@rogers.com) and we will get these to you as soon as possible.
