This Week's Sunday School Activities

This week's Bible Reading is Jeremiah 18: 1-6. Just like the clay in the potter's hand, so are you in my hand.

This scripture reading shows God as a potter. God does not use tight fists but offers to shape us with creative hands.

Questions to consider after reading this Bible passage.

a) How do you think God is like a potter? b) How do you think God holds us? c) How do you feel when someone holds you with love?

Here are some things for you to think about and discuss with your family members.

a) What kind of person do you want to become? b) What and/or who has shaped you so far in your life? c) What have you done to shape yourself?

Prayer: Thank you God for being our Potter. Help us to put ourselves in your loving hands as we go through each day. Help us also to remember to reach out a loving hand to someone this week. Amen
